

Virtual Kiltwalk Weekend

23rd - 25th April

Your parishioners might be interested in Scotland's Virtual Kiltwalk this year! It's a fantastic opportunity to raise money for our sisters and brothers living in poverty. If you take part in the Virtual Kiltwalk for SCIAF, your money will make three times the difference: Sir Tom Hunter will top up your funds by 50%, and the UK government will match the money raised. Your £1=£3!

Share the SCIAF collection plate

This year, there wasn't a chance to hold a SCIAF collection in your church on the 4th Sunday of Lent. But now, you have the chance to pass the online collection plate to your parish, so they have the opportunity give to the WEE BOX appeal and raise money for children with disabilities in South Sudan. Click the link below to see the collection plate and share that page with your parish on social media.

Please pass the plate

Time to return WEE BOXES

Although Lent has come to an end, you still have time to send in WEE BOXES and double the money raised. All public donations to our appeal will be doubled by the UK government until Tuesday 11th May. You can donate online or over the phone but we know bank transfer is often easiest, so here's how you can pay money directly:

- Send your donation to SCIAF by using sort code 83-21-08 and account number 16021287.
- Please use your postcode as a reference.
- Follow this action up with an email to finance@sciaf.org.uk confirming that you have made a deposit by bank transfer. In the email, please confirm the amount you have deposited, parish name and address, and that the donation relates to the WEE BOX appeal.
- If you have any questions, don't hesitate to give us a call on 0141 354 5555.

Take action for climate justice

Between now and Thursday 6 May, we're asking you to back our campaign and take action to halt the climate emergency. For tips on speaking to your local candidates about climate justice in the run up to the Scottish Parliament elections, you can watch our training session back via YouTube today. Download our supporter toolkit to get involved or email campaigns@sciaf.org.uk for more information.
