GOSPEL: Matthew

At that time: Jesus said to his disciples,
'I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees,
you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.'

'You have heard that it was said to those of old,
"You shall not murder;
and whoever murders will be liable to judgement."
But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother will be liable to judgement.

'You have heard that it was said,
"You shall not commit adultery."
But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent
has already committed adultery with her in his heart.
'Again you have heard that it was said to those of old,
"You shall not swear falsely,
but shall perform to the Lord what you have sworn."
But I say to you:
Do not take an oath at all.
Let what you say be simply "Yes" or "No";
anything more than this comes from evil.

PROMPTS FOR FAITH SHARING

- Which of Jesus's commands in this gospel is most challenging to you here and now?
- How could letting go of internal sins such as anger and lust enable you to live more wholeheartedly as a disciple of Jesus?
- What moral teachings of the church do you struggle with? Is there anything that could help you see them as a loving invitation to a life of wholeness?

Speaking about today's Gospel Pope Francis said, "We must always ask for this grace: to know what is happening in our heart, to constantly make the right choice, the choice for good. And that the Lord helps us to love one another. And if I cannot love another well, why not? Pray for that person, pray that the Lord make me love him. And like this we move forward, remembering that what taints our lives is the evil that comes from our hearts. And that the Lord can help us."

On the feast day of our Lady of Lourdes last Wednesday Pope Leo visited the Lourdes Grotto in the Vatican gardens. There he said :- "It is a most beautiful day that reminds us of the closeness of Mary, our Mother, who always accompanies us and who teaches us a great deal: the meaning of suffering, love, and delivering one's life into the hands of the Lord."
